

“Point to the Moon” - written and performed by Chad Price

Show me a flame and I'll show you the sun,
Burning within where the light comes from,
We watch the shadows we cast on the wall,
Bounded by chains,
We can't break them at all,

Out from the cave,
We make the ascent,
Off to a place where we've never been,
You will not find the truth in these words,
'Til you look beyond and break from the herd,

We just point to the moon,
We just point to the moon,
We just point to the moon,
We just point to the moon,
